

2018 US Darts Masters & North American Darts Championship

The 2018 PDC US Darts Masters will take place in the South Pacific Ballroom at the Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino, Las Vegas on July 6 and 7.

The event forms part of the PDC's World Series of Darts and is preceded by the 2018 North American Darts Championship on July 5, the winner of which will qualify for the 2018/19 World Darts Championship.

The US Darts Masters will feature eight North American qualifiers who will play against PDC stars Michael van Gerwen, Peter Wright, Rob Cross, Gary Anderson, Daryl Gurney, Gerwyn Price and two additional players to be confirmed.

QUALIFIER ENTRY

On July 3 and 4 there will be two qualifying competitions per day open to all US and Canadian citizens over the age of 16. The winner of each of the four qualifying competitions, along with the top four players from a Merit Table over the four events, will qualify for the North American Darts Championship and the US Darts Masters.

Entry to the qualifying competitions is £70 per event (approx. $100) and must be made via the PDC's online entry system using one of the following links:

Players with existing login details <https://pdclive.servasport.com/login.html>

New players (who need to register) <https://pdclive.servasport.com/register.html>

The deadline for qualifier entry is Friday June 29, 10AM PST/ 6PM BST. Players should be aware that each event requires a separate entry. Players may enter as many or as few events as they choose. If a player qualifies and has entered subsequent events, he will be refunded his entry to those events.

The qualifying events will be played with an open draw over a minimum of the best of seven legs, straight knock-out, single-in double-out 501.

Prize money will be awarded as follows:

	US MASTERS	NADC	QUALIFIERS
Winner	20000	10000	2000
Runner-Up	10000	5000	1000
S-Finalists	5000	2500	750
